EVELYN CAULFIELD PRESENTED WITH 2018 SENIORS LOCAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Member for Castle Hill Ray Williams has presented Mrs Evelyn Caulfield of Castle Hill with the 2018 Seniors Festival Local Achievement Award, in recognition of her dedication and work within the local community,

Mr Williams stated that "Mrs Caulfield's lifelong commitment to Guides, her local church and the local community is quite remarkable, and made her an outstanding candidate".

In her youth, Mrs Caulfield was both a Brownie and then Guide. She returned to the Guides when her daughters wanted to join in 1968. She has continued her involvement since that time, and is now a member of The Hills Trefoil Guild.

Mrs Caulfield is also a dedicated member of St Columba's Church Castle Hill. Here she serves as the President of the Presbyterian Women's Association, a role she has held on three occasions. Mrs Caulfield has also been serving as an ESL teacher at the church for over 5 years.

"The NSW Seniors Festival is the largest event of its kind in the Southern Hemisphere, and these Local Awards are designed to acknowledge seniors who continue to make a direct impact in the community around them. I believe Evelyn exemplifies the spirit of Castle Hill and is a worthy winner of this year's Award".
