CELEBRATING 60 YEARS - PREMIER'S GALA CONCERT TICKETS AVAILABLE TO CASTLE HILL SENIORS

Local Member Ray Williams is encouraging Castle Hill residents to get in quick and book their free tickets to the 2018 Premier's Gala Concerts, to be held in Sydney this April.

Mr Williams said the concerts will be the highlight of the 60th 2018 NSW Seniors Festival and tickets are available to anyone aged over 60.

"The theme for the Seniors Festival Diamond Anniversary year is 'Let's do more together' - a great way to do that is to organise a group excursion to see some of the best musical talent Australia has to offer," Mr Williams said.

Mr Williams said Minister for Ageing Tanya Davies recently announced David Campbell and Marcia Hines will headline a suite of exciting performers at the music extravaganza, to be held at the International Convention Centre (ICC) Sydney on Thursday 5 and Friday 6 April.

"This star-studded line up will be hugely popular so I encourage all Castle Hill seniors to snag their tickets as soon as possible, they will no doubt book out quickly," Mr Williams.

Other performers include country music singer Darren Coggan and X Factor Finalists Jess and Matt. Entertainer Susie Elelman has also been announced as this year's official ambassador.

Mrs Davies said the NSW Government has provided $200,000 to support more than a hundred other events to be held across the state.

"This year will be a big year, celebrating 60 years of the annual NSW Seniors Festival, so be sure to find the events happening in your local area, get involved and have some fun," Mrs Davies said.

The 2018 NSW Seniors Festival runs from Wednesday 4 to Sunday 15 April and includes a two-day Expo alongside the concerts and the Comedy Debate, to be hosted by Jean Kittson at Sydney Town Hall.
