

Ray Williams MP

MEMBER FOR CASTLE HILL
MINISTER FOR MULTICULTURALISM AND MINISTER FOR DISABILITY SERVICES

MEDIA RELEASE

12 March 2019

ROWENA MEZZOMO ANNOUNCED AS CASTLE HILL'S 2019 LOCAL WOMAN OF THE YEAR

In recognition of her dedication and hard work in the local community, Member for Castle Hill Ray Williams MP has named Mrs Rowena Mezzomo as Castle Hill's 2019 Local Woman of the Year.

Rowena Mezzomo is an invaluable member of the Rouse Hill Rhinos Football Club, holding various roles since she became involved in 2007. She has been Club Secretary for the last 5 years, and was awarded Secretary of the Year at 2018 Parramatta Juniors District Awards.

The Rouse Hill Rhinos has over 30 teams 450+ players and 150 Officials. Rowena responds to hundreds of emails every week, ensures all paperwork and compliance is complete, and that every member has what they need for training and game day. Every Saturday she makes sure game day gets off to a smooth start and doesn't leave until pack up is done.

This year, the Club also won the title of Club of the Year at The Parramatta District Awards night and the Club attributes a big part of that award to her. Rowena takes on her role and responsibilities with passion, dedication, commitment and without complaint.

Nothing is ever a problem for Rowena, she works tirelessly to make sure that everyone is happy and all Rhino players have the best experience they can possibly have.

Rowena was recognised at this year's NSW Women of the Year Awards breakfast ceremony at the ICC Sydney, on the eve of International Women's Day.

Member for Castle Hill Ray Williams MP said International Women's Day is a wonderful annual event celebrating the achievements and inspiring efforts of trailblazing women across NSW.

"It is a truly inspiring event where women, like Rowena are deservedly recognised for the profound and positive impact they have had on their communities," Mr Williams said. "The Castle Hill community is a better place because of Rowena and I was proud to present her with this prestigious local award."

Media: June Belkovskis - 02 8882 9555

Authorised by Ray Williams MP – Member for Castle Hill, Suite 202, 10-14 Market Lane, Castle Hill NSW 2155