GOOD LUCK TO CASTLE HILL HSC STUDENTS

Students in Castle Hill will sit for their HSC written exams from this Tuesday, State Member for Castle Hill Ray Williams MP wished the students well and praised their adaptability during a challenging year.

Mr Williams is joined by a host of well-known Australia's wishing the Class of 2020 good luck.

Mr Williams said TV personality, musicians and top athletes have been sending out their messages of support to Castle Hill students.

"We have 1114 students sitting the HSC in Castle Hill electorate and we are wishing all of them the best," said Mr Williams. "Our students have done so well, we are all so proud of them and I know they have these final few weeks covered.

"There is support all around you, make sure if you need help ask – there are online resources along with your friends and family ready to help."

Education Minister Sarah Mitchell said that 2020 has thrown up plenty of challenges and our HSC students have met them with the help of their school, family and friends - and now the broader community wants students to know they have got this.

"With the start of written exams only days away, my message to students is to continue to take care of your wellbeing, reaching out for support or advice if you need it and keeping active. We are all behind you," Ms Mitchell said.

"Enjoy this milestone, look around and remember there's a team of people, your family, your friends, your teachers who have got you to this point." Sally Fitzgibbons, World #1 Australian professional surfer.

"Goodluck to all you amazing students of 2020. Go get em!" Claudia Karvan, Australian actress, producer and scriptwriter

"I wish you all nothing but the best for the future, sending you lots of love." Australian fashion model, Samantha Harris
